5. It is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Board of Directors to adjust, determine, and handle any key contents of the offering plan for the Long-Term Fund Raising, including but not limited to, the actual issue price, number of shares to be issued, offering conditions, fundraising amount, record date for the capital increase, project items, expected schedule, and expected benefits, as well as all other matters relating to the offering plan, depending on the prevailing market conditions. In the case of any need to amend or adjust any of the foregoing matters, including applying for an extension or cancellation of the offering plan with the competent authority, due to changes in laws or regulations or as required by the competent authority or objective or subjective circumstances, the Board of Directors is also authorized to handle these matters with full power and authority in accordance with the law.
6. To facilitate the issuance operation under the Long-Term Fund Raising, it is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Chairman of the Board or his designated person to sign all contracts and documents relating to the Long-Term Fund Raising and handle other relevant matters for and on behalf of the Company.
7. The proposal was approved by the Board of Directors.

With respect to business operations, Winbond's second 12-inch wafer fabrication plant (Kaohsiung Fab) continued to increase its production capacity. Our in-house DRAM 20nm and NOR Flash 45nm process technology have successfully entered mass production. We also continued to promote digital transformation and integrate AI technology for increasing productivity. To address climate issues, we encouraged employees to use innovative methods to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in daily operations. Additionally, we actively invested in and procured renewable energy to showcase our commitment to climate actions as we prepare for economic recovery.

Financial Performance

In 2023, our consolidated revenue amounted to NT$75.006 billion, a decrease of 20.7% compared to 2022 mainly due to weakened end-user market demand and inventory adjustments of the electronics industry. Memory and logic IC products constituted 53% and 47% of consolidated revenue, respectively. The gross margin was 30% and the operating margin was -2%. Our net earnings after tax were NT$34 million (net loss of NT$1.147 billion attributed to the parent company) while -NT$0.29 per share.

Market and Product Applications

Winbond's memory business is dedicated to the design, manufacturing, and distribution of Code Storage Flash Memory and Specialty DRAM. Our logic IC business includes microcontroller/voice applications, cloud security, image sensors, battery monitoring, IoT applications, semiconductor components, and IC foundry. The combination of our memory and logic IC businesses offers our clients a wider range of comprehensive solutions, thereby strengthening our operational stability.

In terms of product application, Winbond's memory products are evenly distributed across 4 major sectors: communication, automotive/industrial, consumer, and computing/peripheral products. In 2023, revenue from communication applications dropped to 25% of our memory business revenue due to slower inventory destocking. Automotive and industrial sectors have rectified supply-demand imbalance during the pandemic, with the combined revenue contribution remaining at 26%. Demand for consumer and computing/peripheral products gradually returned by season, accounting for 25% and 24% respectively. In the realm of logic IC business, demand for automotive and industrial applications stabilized, reaching 48% of the logic IC business revenue. Demand for consumer products and smartphones weakened, accounting for 17% and 19% while computing and peripheral products and applications remained at 16%.

Product Innovation and Technology Development

For our memory business, Winbond incorporates green design concepts into product development to fulfill our sustainability promise, leveraging our core competitive advantage. We invented ultra-low power design and smaller packaging for Flash and DRAM products, such as the Flash SON 2x3, 100BGA LPDDR4/4X. We also developed innovative CUBE structures with 3D stacking technology to strengthen bandwidth and reduce consumption during data transfers.

Our logic IC business has delivered stellar performance in 4 major sectors: automotive/industrial control systems, communication, consumer, and computing products. For automotive, we launched the 4th-generation battery chip to precisely measure cell voltage, temperature, and battery pack currents. For industrial control systems, our new heterogeneous multi-core NuMicro® MA35D1 series microprocessor combines high performance, real-time control, and advanced security features, while our 32-bit microprocessor is extensively applicable in various high-performance motor and power source control. Among handheld devices, our CSP MOSFETs for lithium-ion battery protection have been integrated into new smartphone models, hearing aids, and AR glasses. Our new low-power MUG51 microprocessor caters to all types of battery-free devices. In the realm of computing applications, our eBMC (Edge Computing Base Management Controller) chip is particularly designed for edge computing platforms. Suitable for high-speed signal transmission, our USB4 re-timer IC has been successfully introduced to PC clients, propelling new momentum into future prospects of our logic IC business.

To advance our in-house memory technologies, we have initiated mass production of our latest DRAM 20nm technology in 2023 to eventually replace 25nm as the main line of the Kaohsiung Fab. The development of next-generation DRAM 16nm process is proceeding as planned. The NOR Flash 45nm has finished trial run in 2023, with mass production slated to commence in 2024.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
Winbond Electronics Corporation

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Winbond Electronics Corporation (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively referred as the “Group”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Occurrence of Sales Revenue from Specific Series of Flash Memory Products

The sales revenue of Winbond Electronics Corporation and its subsidiaries is mainly from the sale of DRAM IC products, Flash Memory products and Logic IC products.

As the gross profit margin and the proportion of sales revenue from the specific series of flash memory products are higher than those of other product series, and given that the gross profit of the specific series is significant to the net income for the year ended December 31, 2023, we considered the occurrence of sales revenue from the specific series of products as a key audit matter of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023.

The audit procedures that we performed in response to the abovementioned key audit matter included understanding the design and implementation of the key internal controls and testing the effectiveness of the relevant controls over sales revenue and selecting samples of revenue items to verify the occurrence of the transactions.

Other Matter

We have also audited the parent company only financial statements of Winbond Electronics Corporation as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, on which we have issued an unmodified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and IFRS, IAS, IFRIC, and SIC endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with statements that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audits resulting in this independent auditors' report are Kuo-Tyan Hong and Wen-Yea Shyu.
